

Ta Kristina

Situated in the village of San Lawrenz, just moments away from the village square, this exceptional three-bedroom, three-and-a-half-bathroom house seamlessly blends authentic Gozitan character with contemporary living.

Steeped in history, the property showcases traditional Gozitan architecture, featuring limestone walls, timeless architectural details and the distinctive charm of a historic home. Its unique character offers a wonderful opportunity to preserve the beauty of the past while introducing modern comforts and elegant finishes.

The property also benefits from a private garage and offers the potential to create a rooftop swimming pool and outdoor area, providing an inviting space for relaxation.

Offered for sale, unconverted, for the price of €365,000 including planning authority permits. The property provides a unique opportunity for buyers to bring this vision to life.
